Through Culture

Frequently Asked Questions

10 January 2020

Q: What is the value of each grant?

A: Year 1 up to 5,000 GBP
Year 2 up to 15,000 GBP

Q: Can my arts organisation apply for more than one grant?

If successful, selected 1st year projects will be invited for a 2nd and/or 3rd year grant for further project development. After which no further grants would be issued.

Q: What other support can I expect?

British Council staff in India can provide some language and logistics support in-country, subject to early notification and availability.

Q: Can you support with additional funding?

British Council will not be able to support with any additional funding than what is mentioned above. Applicants are however encouraged to seek funding from other external sources. Please ensure that additional funding details (if any) are clearly mentioned in your proposal.

Q: What if I don't know a partner in Northern Ireland or India to put in a joint application?

British Council staff can provide some support with recommendations and suggestions subject to early notification and availability.

Q: How will my application be assessed?

Applications grants will be evaluated by the India- Northern Ireland Connections Through Culture panel. The decision of the assessment panel will be final.
