

British Council Northern Ireland, in partnership with the Confucius Institute at Ulster University, cordially invites you to

Schools Think China

an interactive showcase of all things China, giving your school a taste of how to bring Chinese language and culture into your classroom.

Join us on

Wednesday 23rd October 2019

11:00 – 14:30

St Anne's Cathedral, Belfast

Interactive pupil workshops will include:

- ☞ Learning traditional Chinese lion dance
- ☞ Penning Chinese calligraphy
- ☞ The art of Chinese face mask changing
- ☞ Creating unique Chinese silk fans

Experience live Chinese opera and musical performances, while sampling some traditional Chinese dishes!

Teachers will be provided with information on how to:

- ☞ Avail of a Chinese Language Assistant for your school
- ☞ Partner with a school in China and work on international projects together
- ☞ Get involved in our annual Mandarin Speaking competition
- ☞ Obtain free resource packs to bring Mandarin to life in the classroom

Please note:

- ☞ This event is open to all Key Stages
- ☞ Places will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis: please indicate in your response how many pupils you wish to bring
- ☞ Pupils must be accompanied by teaching staff at all times
- ☞ Lunch will be provided: please indicate if there are any special dietary requirements

To secure a place for your school please RSVP to Naomi McAteer (naomi.mcateer@britishcouncil.org) no later than Thursday 26th September 2019
